SAVITRIBAI PHULE JAYANTI

DATE: 3 JANUARY 2024

TIME: 10 am onwards

VENUE: Ground Floor

PARTICIPANTS: Students & Staff member

On 3rd January 2024, the nursing students, organized the celebration of Krantijyoti Savitribai Phule Jayanti at GPMT college. The event was held to honor the remarkable contributions of Savitribai Phule, one of India's foremost social reformers and educators, particularly for her pioneering work in women's education and empowerment. The director of the institute addressed the gathering, shedding light on the significant role Savitribai Phule played in transforming the education landscape of India. He highlighted her relentless efforts to uplift the marginalized sections of society, especially women and Dalits, by establishing the first school for girls in Pune in 1848. Her work laid the foundation for women's education in India, inspiring generations to come. Several students actively participated in the event, delivering speeches that paid tribute to Savitribai's vision and courage. They emphasized her dedication to social justice and her role as a beacon of hope for oppressed communities. The celebration served as a moment of reflection on the progress made in education and social equality, much of which owes its roots to Savitribai Phule's legacy. Students came in the attire of savitribai phule. Our college held a elocution competition and the winner was declared. The event was a fitting homage to Krantijyoti Savitribai Phule, whose work continues to inspire the pursuit of knowledge and equality in modern India.
